Tournaments, Clinics and Fun

Junior golf events have grown in popularity over the past few years around Ohio and across the country. However, the cost and time commitment of traveling to these events keep too many junior golfers from enjoying the benefits of competition and professional instruction. That's why the Union County Junior Golf Academy and Tour will return this summer. Now boys and girls can compete in tournament play and improve their skill and understanding of the game without leaving Union County.

Ken Collett, head golf professional at Darby Creek Golf Course and Larry Morris, varsity golf coach at Fairbanks High School, have created the UCJGAT to promote junior golf and provide a fun competitive environment at a local level.

The clinics and competitions are broken into two divisions—the Academy Division for boys and girls 12 years and under, and the Tour Division for boys and girls 13-17 years.

Registration for the 2010 UCJGAT program closes June 15, 2010. The events will be limited to the first 80 junior golfers, so register soon!

Mr. Collett is the Head Golf Professional at Darby Creek Golf Course in Marysville, OH. Ken is a resident of Delaware and has over 24 years experience in the golf business. For the past 16 years, Ken has actively coached players at all levels, including juniors.

UCJGAT Goals

Academy Division—Boys and Girls 12 Years and Under

- Promote junior golf in Union County
- Introduce competitive golf to juniors
- Celebrate the fun of competition
- Provide general swing mechanics and short game fundamentals
- Teach junior golfers golf etiquette and responsibility

Tour Division—Boys and Girls 13-17 Years

- Promote junior golf at an interscholastic level
- Encourage more athletic swings
- Focus on short game development and improved scoring
- Improve level of play by communicating practice and tournament observations
- Provide instruction in competition etiquette and the rules of golf
